However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with Select Medical's legal duty to furnish information.
- Anti-Harassment/Anti-Discrimination Policy: Employees and applicants of Select Medical will not be subjected to any form of harassment or discrimination for exercising rights protected by, or because of their participation in an investigation or compliance review related to, the Americans With Disabilities Act, Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, the Veterans Employment Opportunities Act of 1998, or any other federal or state non-discrimination law, rule, or regulation. 6. Open Door Policy: Any applicant or employee who believes there has been a violation of Select Medical's policy, or any applicable law relating to equal employment opportunity, should immediately contact their recruiter, in the case of an applicant, or their direct supervisor, in the case of an employee. 7. Complaints: Select Medical will continue to direct management personnel to take such action as may be required to prevent behavior prohibited by this policy. All matters will be investigated and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken, up to and including termination of employment, if necessary. Retaliation against anyone who complains of or witnesses behavior contrary to this policy is also prohibited.

8. Affirmative Action Program: Select Medical also maintains affirmative action programs to implement our equal employment opportunity policy for individuals with disabilities and protected veterans.
