PURPOSE

Select Medical Corporation collects and maintains certain information about our employees, former employees, contracted agents, and workforce members (collectively known as “Covered Entities”). Pursuant to the California Privacy Rights Act, Covered Entities have the right to know about the personal information a business collects about them and how it is used and shared. Covered Entities have the right to delete personal information collected from them, with some exceptions. Covered Entities have the right to opt-out of the sale of their personal information. Covered Entities have the right to non-discrimination for exercising these rights.

To protect the privacy and confidentiality of these Covered Entities and to comply with California law, this policy applies to all applicable Covered Entities.

POLICY

It is the policy of Select Medical Corporation (Select Medical) that requests made by Covered Entities or their personal representatives to exercise their rights under the CPRA will be reviewed and responded to in a timely and appropriate manner in conformity to the law.

PROCEDURES

- 1) Right to know about the personal information a business collects about them and how it is used and shared. A Covered Entity will submit a completed “Right to Know” form (Attachment A) to a Human Resources representative for review. Human Resources will determine if the Covered Entity has these rights under the CPRA. If they do, the information will be provided to the Covered Entity. If they do not, then the Covered Entity will be notified by Human Resources using the Correspondence form (Attachment B).
- 2) Right to delete the personal information collected from them. A Covered Entity will submit a completed “Right to Delete” form (Attachment C) to a Human Resources representative for review. Human Resources will determine if the Covered Entity has these rights under the CPRA. If they do, the information will be deleted from company records. If they do not, then the Covered Entity will be notified by Human Resources using the Correspondence form (Attachment D).
- 3) Right to opt-out of the sale of their personal information. A Covered Entity who would like to opt-out of the sale of their personal information will need to contact a Human Resources representative and this request will be honored.
- 4) Right to non-discrimination for exercising rights under CPRA. A Covered Entity exercising any of their rights under CPRA will not be discriminated against for taking these actions.
